ShopSolarKits.com specializes in solar generator kits that are ideal for RV enthusiasts, van lifers, campers, and emergency preparedness. Their solar generator kits are available on their website.

Do I need a generator if I'm using solar panels?

Looking to summer, when we can use the solar panels and not need to use our generator. The display tells you exactly what you are using and how long is left at current rate of discharge. Capable of running mains powered tools around the site if need be. I ordered my Aferiy p210 primarily to power my CPAP machine when we camp offgrid.

Should I buy a 1200W or 2400W solar panel?

Got the 1200W one last year used daily for cooking and tea making. Hasn't failed me so bought 2400w and keeping other one as back-up. Can't go wrong with 7 year warranty. Got it linked to 200W solar panel and top up with mains when necessary. Price, warranty, quality of build, and much more make owning this a must!
